

PATRICIA M COLGAN

Partner
Chairman of the Trust and Estates Group

For over 25 years, Pat, who is both an attorney and a Certified Public Accountant (CPA), uses her diverse background to assist the Firm's clients in all aspects of estate planning and administration, including: Wills, asset titling, probate, Estate/Fiduciary/Personal tax issues, lifetime transfers, and gifting. Pat's objective is to bring peace of mind to each and every client she assists. Using creative problem-solving, she is able to find a solution for the wide-variety of challenges individuals and families face when planning for the future. Whether the estate plan is simple or complex or estate plan or whether a Supplemental Needs Trust is needed to protect a loved one struggling through adversity, Pat makes certain that every document generated is individually suited to meet the unique family dynamics of her clients. Pat's clients praise her ability to educate and guide them through an unfamiliar process with compassion and patience.

Pat serves as a Trustee for the Frank J. Antun Foundation, gives lectures on a variety of topics in estate planning, and finds time to volunteer at her local church and Our Lady of Mercy Academy, where she is an alumna. Despite all her professional and volunteer accolades, Pat will emphatically share that her greatest achievement has been raising her two wonderful children, James and Margaret Mary.

Education

Pace University, 1978
St. John's University School of Law, 1985

Memberships

NYSSCPA
Nassau County CPA
NYSBA
Nassau County Bar Association
Trusteeships

Trusteeships

Frank J. Antun Foundation

Pat has been influenced by her prior work experience starting with her career at Coopers & Lybrand. She left as a Supervisor in order to attend St. John's University Law School, which led her to a position as Senior Associate at Macri, Greenspan & Moramarco. In addition to her current work at Silverman Acampora,

100 Jericho Quadrangle, Suite 300, Jericho,
NY 11753
T: 516-479-6300 F: 516-479-6301
PColgan@SilvermanAcampora.com
www.silvermanacampora.com

